Dear Friends...

The 'spiritual temperature' of the church is always changing. Sometimes there is a need for her people to turn within and an age of monasticism is born. When the voice of Jesus calling the people out to minister to the least and the lost rises above the background noise of life a social consciousness is born as the church reaches out seeking justice for the marginalized. In the post-war 1950s and 60s the church flourished as the people sought to bring order back to life following the chaos of world conflict. Today the church is finding herself challenged as a growing segment of the population says they are "spiritual, but not religious." These are the folks who affirm God and may well confess Christ, but have become disaffected with the institution of the church. They identify religion with the institution of the church and see spirituality as something which doesn't need the institution of the church in order to be active and healthy. What is driving this is that many of the SNRs (spiritual, but not religious) see the institution of the church as the cause of many of society's problems by being intolerant of other faith traditions, condemning and moving away from people who follow different lifestyles, and allowing accent and skin color to define and separate us. In many ways, the perception of the SNRs is correct. How do we fix it? We don't. The 'fix' is already here. All we need to do is encourage it.

Eighteen of us were at the Worship and Music Conference last week in Montreat, NC. There were seven adults and eleven kids, a group big enough that we needed to stay in two houses. Fortunately, they were close enough to each other that we could walk between the two houses. The girls stayed with Emily and Staci in one house, while the boys stayed in the house with the other adults. Being the only person of the male persuasion, I took it as mine to keep tabs on the boys who were staying on a floor in our house all to themselves. The plan was for the kids to spend their waking time together, which meant the boys had to be up and out early to get to the other house in time for breakfast and the start of their schedule. I asked them how they were planning on getting up on time. "Alarms on our I-phones," came the answer. I should have known better than to have asked. Sure enough, as the early light of day was gathering on Monday morning here came a line of boys up the stairs and out the front door. When I got a text from Emily that they had gotten there, I went back to sleep for another hour. Then that evening around 9 o'clock the van pulled up in front of the house and five boys got out, fed and tired from a busy day, and went down stairs to get some rest for the next day.

The night before I had gone downstairs and preached a mini-sermon about things like tooth brushing, making up beds, keeping things straight, etc. and added that I would be having to come downstairs from time to time since the girls bathroom was upstairs and the boys was down stairs. They understood and the next morning revealed that they had gotten the point of my mini-sermon. Our 11 kids spent that day with a couple hundred other kids at Montreat last week doing Bible study, fun and games, two choir rehearsals, hand bells, and worship daily. That night I went downstairs about 30 minutes after they got back just to check on them. Lights were on, doors were closed, and it was very quiet. I opened the door to the bedroom, and here were three little boys ... all by themselves ... Bibles open ... talking about Jesus. The Church will be fine!

Blessings,

Music Notes

We had a wonderful week at the Worship and Music Conference at Montreat Conference Center in North Carolina. The classes, choirs, conference leaders, worship, concerts, and fellowship were all excellent, inspiring, and fun. We look forward to bringing music and ideas from the conference to you. Thank you for your prayers for us, and for our families at home, for our week away.

Always, thank you for your interest and support of our Providence Musicians.

Best wishes for a happy summer.

Donna

The children are loving all the exciting activities going on at PPCDC for the summer!!

There was an amazing parade celebrating Independence Day. Mr. Jason and the children proudly sang and waved flags as they marched through hallways.

Afterschool children became a wall mural during dance class led by one our very own moms, Kayla Jennings.

The trip to the zoo was a blast.

Everyone loves the bounce house!

Water days are always Fun.

Thank you for your continued support of the CDC.

The PPCDC Office Team

VBS is July 29—July 31

Men of the Church

As a reminder to the men of Providence, Men's Prayer breakfast is every Tuesday morning at 7:00 am at Providence in the Fellowship Hall.

If you are not an early bird, you can also attend the MOC on the second Monday of every month. Our next meeting will be in August.

Keep the Change Sunday, July 24

That's right! Keep the change --- to retire the debt! We encourage every Providence family to set aside your pocket change daily. On the 4th Sunday of the month, June 26, -"Keep the Change" Sunday -- we will collect the change we've saved. Mark your calendars, save your change and help us retire the debt.

Good Samaritan Clinic

The Good Samaritan Clinic is a faith-based 501(c)(3) group that provides free health care to those in need. Be alert for specific needs which will be listed from time to time in our weekly church bulletin. Prayerfully consider donating as you can. If you have questions, please call Joretta Rawl at (803) 234-7844.

Nursery Schedule

The Worship Toddlers has been combined with Worship Nursery.

Calling All Cell Phones

Evangelism and Mission Committee is collecting old cell phones for Sister Care. If you have any cell phones that their calling is to serve Sister Care, please bring them to church and place them in the marked box around the corner from the Narthex.

Gods Helping Hands

Thank you for responding to the needs of this ministry. Your help is greatly appreciated. The suggested items for July are: Bath Soap, Crackers and Juice.

You may drop them by the church any time you would like or bring them with you to church on Sunday. Thanks!

Save Those Tabs

While you're saving labels remember to save your drink can tabs and deposit them in the container in the hallway collection area. The Ronald McDonald House, the families who stay there, and the children who are hospitalized greatly appreciate our support.

Clip The UPC Labels for Thornwell

You may have heard that Campbell's is changing the way they collect the soup labels. The only change is that you now clip the UPC code instead of the front label. Thornwell still redeems them for merchandise as they have done in the past. So please keep clipping!

Also, clip the box tops from hundreds of your favorite General Mills products! Each box top is worth $.10 to Thornwell.
